

Casino Dealer

$22,340 - $73,530

DOUBLE DOWN ON THE FUTURE. YOUR WINNING HAND STARTS HERE!

Ever think about stepping into the glamorous world of casino gaming? A career as a casino dealer could be your lucky hand.

Nebraska's job outlook for casino dealers is steady and promising. The state's recent legalization of casino-style gaming has brought plenty of exciting new job opportunities.

Employment is projected to grow approximately 233% by 2032.

The median salary for a casino dealer in the United States is $33,280 per year. This number can increase based on experience and tips.

Pathway to Casino Dealing

- Minimum requirement of high school diploma or GED
- Be 21 years old+ and a U.S. citizen
- Ability to pass a dealer audition
- Less than one month on-the-job training

Training Programs

- T. Byrd Training Center \(online\)
- Crescent Casino Dealer School \(online\)
- Ace Dealer Academy \(multiple\)
- Prairie Flower Casino \(Carter Lake, IA\)

Possible Employers

Nebraska's gaming industry is expanding rapidly, offering exciting career paths for skilled and aspiring casino dealers. Whether you're a seasoned professional or just starting out, you can explore multiple venues and formats—from full-time positions at established casinos to flexible gigs at themed events. Be sure to check job posting sites for available openings!