PONCA ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CORPORATION
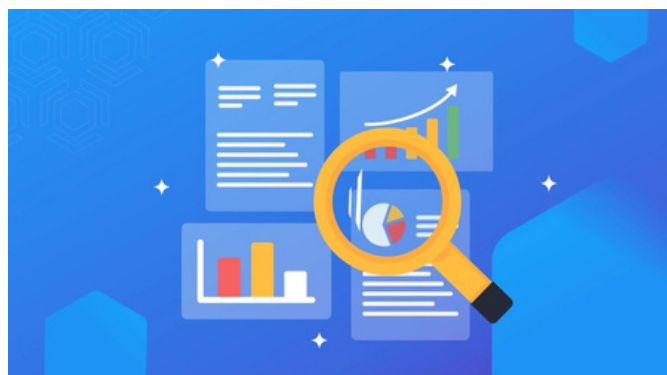

Data Analyst

$51,067 - $87,480

DATA SCIENCE: NOT AS HARD AS YOU MIGHT THINK.

Companies, nonprofits, and governments rely on data analysts to help them make smart decisions. Data analysts examine large amounts of information to gain insights. They use specialized software to help them visualize patterns and trends.

Data analysts are in high demand and can often work remotely. This job is a great fit for someone who likes learning new information, analyzing data, and solving problemsa

The median salary for a data analyst in Nebraska is $67,849 per year, depending on experience and abilities. Many schools and workforce development organizations offer certifcate programs that will quickly teach you the skills you need to secure a job.

How Much School Do I Need?

college degree is not always necessary to work as a data analyst.

- Know how to analyze, interpret, explain, and model data
- Understand Python, SQL, Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Access, and more
- Pay extremely close attention to detail
- Enjoy solving complex problems

Training Programs

gener8tor Skills - virtual training available in Omaha, Lincoln, and select US cities University of Nebraska at Omaha - (Omaha, NE) Data Analytics Certificate Metropolitan Community College - (Omaha, NE) Data Science Career Certificate Wayne State College - (Wayne, NE) Programmer/Analyst Degree Google Data Analytics Certificate - (virtual)
____ _____ _____

Possible Employers

Data analysts are needed in every field, including tech, healthcare, finance, nonprofit, government, and more.

Examples of employers recently hiring for data analysts include: TD Ameritrade, Immanuel Hospital, Heartland Family Service, Interpublic Group (IPG), and National Indemnity Company.