

CDL Truck Driver

$38,960 - $92,890

GET IN THE DRIVER'S SEAT OF YOUR FUTURE.

If you ever dream of hitting the open road while building a stable, well-paying career, becoming a CDL truck driver might be your perfect route.

According to the Nebraska Trucking Association, 62,970 jobs are provided by the trucking industry in Nebraska. Employment is expected to increase 7% by 2032.

The median salary for a truck driver in Nebraska is $57,940 per year. This number can increase based on specialized roles or long-haul routes.

Pathway to Trucking

- Must be at least 21 years old for interstate operation
- Hold a valid Nebraska driver's license
- Receive a Commercial Learners Permit (CLP) at least 14 days before your CDL Exam
- Pass a skills test before applying for a CDL

Training Programs

- Roadmaster Drivers School
- Metropolitan Community College \(Omaha\)
- Northeast Community College \(Norfolk\)
- Southeast Community College – Milford, NE

Possible Employers

With Nebraska's economy rooted in agriculture and livestock, the demand for CDL truck drivers is high. Companies recently hiring include, Meadow Lark Transport, K2 Construction, Efitz Logistics, and Accent It. Be sure to check job posting sites for additional opportunities.